FROM THE PRIME MINISTER

(Prayut Chan-o-cha)
Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Thailand

I would like to congratulate all the winners of the Prime Minister's Export Award for their outstanding achievements this year. This award has been presented for the past 25 years to Thai entrepreneurs who have represented the best of Thailand's export sector in terms of high-quality products, innovation and creativity, and international acclaim.

The winners this year follow from a long list of successful Thai enterprises that have not only created award-winning products and exceeded their growth targets, but also contributed to the socio-economic development and environmental sustainability of their respective communities. In this regard, I encourage you to continue with this fine tradition of inspiring budding Thai entrepreneurs to remain committed to their goals of excellence in production and design, market connectivity, and corporate social responsibility.

This will be particularly important for the future of Thailand's exports sector as the country moves forward towards a new era of stability, prosperity, and sustainability. To this end, I also look forward to a modern era for Thai exporters as the country progresses towards the Thailand 4.0 agenda, in which technology and innovation will drive our smart manufacturing and strategic industrial sectors. To support this, the Royal Thai Government is committed to promoting our SMEs, a digital economy, not to mention Special Economic Zones across the country and the Eastern Economic Corridor. This will also involve efficient investments in transport and logistics infrastructure, enhanced Public-Private-People partnerships, as well as physical and value connectivity throughout all sectors in our economy.

As the Royal Thai Government continues to promote Thailand's competitiveness, I am confident that our leading role as an exporter of excellent products and services to the world will also grow stronger in the years to come. I wish you success in all your endeavours

CREATIVE STUDIO

The culture of Thai-Chinese shows many development in Thailand country, especially in Food culture. Chinese sausage is one of very traditional and it is very fascinating to disrupt the way they are to attract new target with new way of product display. The way we design is based on the product, Fish Chinese Sausage. What we draft up is the sketch design for the sausage cover with modern drawing Seven-striped barb fish pattern with green-red mixed color at the tails area, this make it cute and catch attention easily. The cover is partially wrap to let buyer see the sausage meat with the traditional way on braided rope for the sausage to make it easy to hang and sell. The 1 portion is one sausage, this could let them buy easier instead of 4 pieces of sausage for 1 portion.

We believe in our own cultures and look back to the root of our native arty way then play with it. Its design reflects on local aesthetics and Thai culture and life. It also aims to represent enchantment and exotic beauty of Thai Folk Art in another new perspectives. Selective material and hi-technology printing are carefully applied to make the design look contemporary and modern in order to present a distinct image of Thai culture. We bump into key elements of working across different disciplines between graphic and textile designs that are able to differentiate and exclusive my works or so called "conceptual". I also tend to work more purely visual terms on her pattern designs.

An important factor for an individual work piece of mine is required to well blended as well as become one of one's lifestyle with an exceptional plus vivid. The pattern can build up a warm and lively environment to minimize the differences. It is simply applied to some place where people live; work also spends their time every day. The graphic can be applied into the shape and formed a dimension of the covering things around in many different ways in order to create innovative exciting experiences or easily be impressed by people.
